The critical work of
The Women's Refuge

Well done to The Daisy Bowlers who, despite the heat at July's meeting, managed to keep their cool and entertain us with some joyous music. The drinks flowed all evening to help keep us all cool and scones, jam and cream were served. Last month's competition was very apt in that members were asked to design a fan.

Thank you to Liz who hosted a fab Belles garden party in August. Have you seen the photos on the website? The chickens were a hit with the children present.

President's Pitch

Hello Belles,

TBBWI Group Activities

For more information on any group please see the 'Belles and Beyond' page on our website www.thebrentwoodbelleswi.co.uk speak to a committee member.

September Produce Swap

This month's swap will be a tasty produce table—so please bring along any surplus fruit and veg from your gardens and allotments. Any dried herbs or Lavender plus homemade jams and chutneys are welcome. Members can swap or take home anything for a small donation.

Do support our swap table - all money raised covers tea and coffee costs

Challenge Cup

It's time to relive your proudest moment and bring along a sporting trophy, certificate or favourite sports memorabilia for this month's competition entitled, 'What's my (sporting) story'. Who knows what sporting glories we will discover!

Design a Fan Winners

1st place Alex Hammond

2nd place Lynne Day

3rd place Liz Francis

It's NFWI Women in Sport 3rd-9th October, and, following the success of Team GB in Rio, we are arranging a few sports taster sessions. So why not try your hand at tennis, archery, abseiling and, hopefully even weight lifting? Some details have already been emailed to you but more will be announced at the meeting.

Give it a go!

As part of the WI's campaign on food poverty and waste, members are asked to please complete a food waste survey. This can be done on line and should take about fifteen minutes. Please follow this link <http://www.surveymonkey.co.uk/r/>

Polite request Ladies - please help stack chairs at the end of this evening.
